REASONS TO JUSTIFY THE APPOINTMENT OF EMIR RAMIĆ
TO THE OFFICE OF THE HEAD OF THE INSTITUTE FOR RESEARCH OF GENOCIDE CANADA {IRGC}

The main reasons to appoint Emir Ramić, M.A. to the office of the Head of the IRGC are his scientific and professional competencies, his humane and moral virtues. Mr. Ramić has Master's degree in Political Sciences and he has participated in the researches of crimes against humanity and international law in the territory of Prijedor, in the capacity of the associate of the Institute for the Research of Crimes Against Humanity and International Law of the Sarajevo University. Mr. Ramić is currently working on his doctoral dissertation, which is directly related to these matters, which makes him qualified and competent to perform the office of the IRGC Head. Mr. Ramić has proven himself during the so far researches and studies as a serious and responsible scholar, who conscientiously and responsibly fulfils his research tasks in accordance with the Code of Ethics and demands of these matters. What additionally recommends him for this position is the fact that he himself is a victim of genocide.

Thereby, it is our pleasure to appoint Emir Ramić, M.A. to the office of the IRGC Head.
